Course contents

Together with you, we find a language course that suits you, prepare you for attendance and support you until you have settled down well into your course.

We encourage and consolidate your language development during the transitional phase, e.g. from the integration course until the more advanced language course. We offer you advice, information and events covering a wide range of subjects on the subject of “the labour market and training market in Germany“.

The entire process is followed up in individual conversations.
